

Privacy Policy Goodwill Industries of Mississippi, Inc.

Last Updated: May 2026

Goodwill Industries of Mississippi, Inc. (GIMS) is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard information provided to us by donors, clients, volunteers, and visitors to our website.

Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of personal information: contact information (name, mailing address, email address, and phone number), financial information (credit card or bank account details provided during donations or transactions), demographic information where voluntarily provided, and website usage data such as IP addresses and pages visited.

How We Use Your Information

Information collected is used solely for purposes related to our charitable mission, including processing donations and issuing tax receipts, communicating with donors and clients about programs and services, responding to inquiries, and complying with legal requirements. We do not sell, trade, rent, or otherwise share your personal information with third parties for their marketing purposes.

Donor Privacy

GIMS respects the privacy of our donors. Donor information is used only to process gifts and maintain our relationship with supporters. We do not sell or exchange donor lists with other organizations. Donors who wish to remain anonymous may contact us to request that their name not be published or shared in any form.

Security Measures

GIMS takes the protection of your personal information seriously. We employ the following measures to safeguard your data: access to personal and financial information is restricted to authorized staff members only; all personal and financial information transmitted through our website and donation platforms is protected using industry-standard encryption (SSL/TLS) during data transfer; personal information is stored in secure systems with access controls in place; and our data security practices are reviewed periodically to ensure continued effectiveness.

Third-Party Service Providers

GIMS may engage trusted third-party vendors such as payment processors to assist in operating our website and processing transactions. These vendors are contractually required to maintain the confidentiality of your information and are prohibited from using it for any other purpose.

Your Choices

You may opt out of receiving communications from GIMS at any time by contacting us below. You may also request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal information held by GIMS, subject to applicable legal requirements.
